

Please stop efforts to restrict content available to me for the monthly subscription fee I pay for satellite radio. Our government should not exist for the purpose of protecting non-competitive service providers. While I now enjoy getting weather and traffic information from my satellite radio, I continue to access commercial support broadcast radio in those instances where I, as a free choice consumer, find their service to be superior. That incentive will be lost with anit-competitive protectionist legislation.